THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1900.

DEMOCRATIC National Committee Chairman Jones has concluded not to smash trusts but to regulate them.

The talk about "oppressing" the Filipinos is idiosyncrasy. "Oppression under the Stars and Stripes" is only a phrase for demagogues.

THE United States is becoming more law abiding. Last year there were only 107 lynchings. Several previous years had averaged more than 200.

SOME of Gov. Bradley's admirers are talking of him for the Vice Presidential nomination this year. Gov. Bradley has made a most enviable record as Governor of Kentucky and is worthy any honor Kentuckians can give him.

TRUSTS continue to grow and flourish in Great Britain, the home of free trade, but free-traders in this country say that protection makes trusts and is fighting a protective tariff, which is benefitting millions of American workingmen, over the shoulders of the trusts.

ARE Kentuckians to lose their rights as citizens and the same time uncomplainingly go down in their pockets and pay the expense of Goebel's organized raid on their liberties? So would Goebel and his followers have it, and it is certain the people are paying the expense of this villainous "contest" which grows daily more notorious for its villainy.

THE name of the Kentucky Vindicator, the prohibition party organ published at Owensboro should be changed to the Vindicativator, or else vow to become more temperate in its attacks on temperance people who are not third party prohibitionists. But doubtless the wholesale and retail whiskey-laden air of Owensboro is aggravating and editor Likins may be forgiven on this ground.

THE people of Kentucky, regardless of political affiliation, are growing wearied of the desperate and inconsiderate game of villainous politics that is being prolonged by the Goebel people at Frankfort, at the expense of the honest citizens and voters of Kentucky, against whose rights as free men the game is being played out in the Legislature by Goebel with a handful of loaded dice such as packed juries and pronouncedly prejudiced judges. Goebel and his followers would have the people lose their rights of suffrage and sit idly at home and pay the enormous expense attendant upon their long drawn out attempt to steal the State. The matter touches deeply both the liberties and the purses of the people of Kentucky.

By Injunction.

The Democrats, especially the Goebel Democrats, have had a great deal to say in the way of denunciation of "government by injunction," attempting in the late campaign and since to make injunctions odious in the minds of the people and at the same time to lay injunctions, and the odium they thus attached wholly at the door of the Republican party. The recent Goebelite address laid great stress upon this point. Replying to this the Republican Committee's address says "In the addresses complaint is made of the state judges interfering by injunction when their party was the first to inaugurate it. Judge T. J. Nunn, without justification, issued an injunction in Caldwell county to prevent Randolph's name, a candidate for representative, from being placed on the ballots, which injunction was dissolved and Randolph elected by a large majority. Notwithstanding this, the same distinguished judge signs this address, arraigning Judge Toney and others. In view of the foregoing recitation of facts the brazen effrontery of the Goebel organization in attempting to make believe that it has been defrauded, intimidated and outraged, appears in all its hideous deformity."

And now the cap sheaf is put upon the injunction shock by Judge Cantrill, a circuit judge widely and openly spoken of and denounced in unqualified terms at Frankfort and elsewhere as a Goebel partisan, who granted the injunction asked by Poyntz, Fulton and Yonts against the true commissioners, Cochran and Mackoy, and then—without request of the attorneys for the defendants and against their wishes—dissolved the injunction at once so that the Goebelites are by his action given the advantage in the matter of appeal, in that the Goebel people are thus given the authority of asking any judge on the appellate bench, whom they may prefer, to reinstate the injunction against Cochran and Mackoy.

Injunctions are denounced most bitterly when they are invoked against the Goebelites to prevent some gigantic fraud upon the suffrage of the people of Kentucky, but they are used eagerly where there can be found a court so partisan as to play into the hands of Goebel and his band in their systematic and dangerous raid on government by the people of Kentucky.

TIT FOR TAT.

Gov. Bradley May Contest Blackburn's Election Before the United States Senate.

Evening Post Special Service. Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 8.—In the event that Goebel, with Blackburn's aid, disposes Gov. Taylor, Mr. Blackburn will have to pay the piper. At tonight's Republican caucus, ex-Gov. Bradley will be nominated for United States Senator without opposition. Tomorrow, when Mr. Blackburn is elected, all the minority members will, of course, vote for Gov. Bradley.

Then, if Taylor is thrown out of office, Bradley will contest the election of Blackburn before the United States Senate on the ground that a majority of the men who voted for Blackburn were fraudulently elected under the Goebel election law, and that he (Bradley) received a majority of the votes of the honestly chosen legislators of Kentucky. This mode of retaliation will be a head-breaker to Blackburn. The temper of the National Senate toward the Goebel law is well known, and it is about as certain as anything human can be that Blackburn at Washington would share the fate of Taylor at Frankfort, while Bradley enjoyed a seat in the Senate.

William J. Huske, editor of the Greenup Democrat, has an extended article in the New York Sun, in defense of the mob that burned murderer Coleman at Maysville. He scores the Sun correspondent, saying any one who would defend Coleman "should be sentenced to a life imprisonment with such criminals."

News from Frankfort.

The Daily State Democrat, Frankfort's new paper, with full proceedings of the Legislature each day, and all the interesting political inside political gossip of this momentous session, will be sent you the entire session for ONE DOLLAR, cash. Send dollar bill, check or order at once to KENTUCKY STATE DEMOCRAT.

"Strike For Your Altars and Your Fires."

Patriotism is always commendable, but in every breast there should be not only the desire to be a good citizen, but to be strong, able bodied and well fitted for the battle of life. To do this, pure blood is absolutely necessary, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one specific which cleanses the blood thoroughly. It acts equally well for both sexes and all ages.

Humor—"When I need a blood purifier I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures my humor and is excellent as a nerve tonic." J. J. Eaton, Stafford Springs, Ct.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

Col. Bryan's new book is well under way. As it is supplemental to "The First Battles," he will probably call it "The Second Failure to Kick Goal."—Globe-Democrat.

The Kansans who three years ago used their dinner horns to cry calamity are now using their sheep shears to clip coupons.—Courier-Journal.

A fat pay roll is certainly good evidence of prosperity! Eh, Mr. Democrat?—Norwalk (Ohio), Reflector.

Goebel seems to have the Legislature where he had the convention, but things are not always what they seem, and Taylor, Governor by the grace of the people, cannot be ousted as were the delegates to the State convention.—Louisville Post.

Goebel probably shed tears when he failed to whitewash the Republicans in drawing lots for his legislative committee. Something must have slipped inside the box.—Globe-Democrat.

Governor Taylor has already moved into the governor's mansion at Frankfort, and will do as all former governors have done in Kentucky for more than a century. He will not move out until the end of his term, according to the decision of the voters.—Elizabethtown Leader.

The legislative contests will cost the state thousands of dollars and the loss of much valuable time. And ninety per cent will be the result of the iniquity of the Goebel election bill, which has left its mark upon the state like the trail of the snake it has proven.—Paducah Sun.

Mr. Goebel seems to have missed fire; he succeeded in getting only ten Democrats on the committee of eleven which is to try his case.—Lexington Herald.

The Message.

Gov. Taylor's message to the general assembly is a masterly product. It shows that the people made no mistake in choosing their governor. He is conversant with the state's needs and has clearly presented them to the proper tribunal for their betterment. But this scholarly message will doubtless pass as did those of the matchless Bradley—unheeded. However, Gov. Taylor has faithfully performed his duty, and has recommended that which seems to the best interest of the state, and now the responsibility passes to the general assembly.—Hartford Republican.

Roast for Harrel.

Senator Harrel admits that he offered to sell out to John Whallen for $5,000, but that Whallen only offered him $4,500, which he accepted. He says he refused to carry out his contract with Whallen because he got more from Goebel and his friends?—Somerset Paragon.

Will Get His Fill

Judge Notoriety Tarvin will experience the excitement he craves when he tackles ex-Gov. Bradley in that "contest."—Elizabethtown Leader.

Not Salt Enough.

Fish, it is said, die in a Salt lake. Yet Goebel seems to survive very well in the waters of Salt river.—Grayson Eagle.

Notes of Progress.

From the Globe-Democrat. A government roof garden, 175x150 feet will be made on top of the immigration building on Ellis Island, N. Y. The army of immigrants detained on the island in summer will enjoy the salt air and a panoramic view of the city and sea. A large playground for immigrant children will also be provided.

Philanthropic gifts of money in the United States in the year 1899, counting only sums exceeding $1000, amounted to over $80,000,000. At this rate pessimists will begin to devote their attention to the "drawbacks of benevolence." They will be sure to find them.

Musical industries in the United States report the largest sales last year ever known in the business. Over 130,000 pianos were made and sold, going beyond the best previous year, 1892, by 30,000.

Tagals have begun to murder American prisoners and mutilate their bodies. Sympathizers with the Tagals in this country have strange ideas of the proper sort of material to start a new republic.

Money Orders to Mexico.

Postmasters have been notified by the department at Washington that arrangements have been perfected for exchanging money orders with Mexico. Money orders can be issued to any point in Mexico at the rate of five cents for each money order amounting to $10 or fraction of that amount.

A peculiar disease that is very fatal and quite contagious has broken out in a neighborhood about two miles from Big Clifty. The people call it the black tongue, as the tongues of all those who have died with it become very black. The doctors have not decided what it is. So far there have been four deaths from it.

"Doing nothing is doing ill." Impure blood neglected will become a serious matter. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla once and avoid the ill.

The reunion of the Third Kentucky regiment will more than likely to be held in Bowling Green on June 6. At a recent meeting of the boys who went to Cuba a reunion of the regiment was discussed, and a committee will be named in the near future to correspond with all the ex-soldiers. Col. J. T. Smith was present, and says the reunion is a sure go.
